5.5 Knight Marshal – Mikhaila –

Chess challenge 4/5/19

Report given my Margie as MiC.

I backed her up as Marshal in Training.

Chess Challenge X Report.

7 full contact combatants

Sir Brennan

Sir Benedict

Airdin

Ludovicus

Nikoferos

Hanbal

Cormac

Marshals on the field Mistress Margie and Mikhaila as Marshal in training.

Inspecting marshals Margie Hanbal Airdin Cormac

All helmets were inspected on and off heads.

Ludovicus was advised that his padding is old and compressing and should be replaced before the next event.

One sword needed to be retaped.

The tourney was fought in Chess Challenge format so weapons and armour changed between rounds. No issues.

Broken boundaries In one of the melee rounds Airdin collided with a list rope pole, falling over it, causing it to snap off at the stand. No injuries. Neither Marshal in the field observed it in time to stop it occurring. Sir Wulfrum was standing on that side of the field and I believe he called the hold.

In the following bout Wulfrum and I used horizontally held spears to delineate the edge of the list field.

Nikoferos was the victor over Airdin in the tournament.

Yours in service, Margie of Glen More.

Mikhaila did three full armour inspections under my supervision. She asked pertinent questions and incorporated any information or advice she was given. She also did the Marshal management on the field for the melee rounds, ie wielding the marshals pole, and making sure combatants were prepared before herself calling the lay on.
